

X

Dear H.

I was very sorry to hear that you had not been well & that that you are all right again now.

What you tell me about your new book interests me very much.

may also choose good

If we ever could again
stand on the same side of the gulf wh. I fear still separates us must respect to the most important question of all I should indeed feel proud to have one of things that are desirable good & then that are essentially evil & can the light of man for them (and from that

that he may choose
the one & reject the other
of his choice and the evil will be with them but the evil, about those he

one of your books did
pate to me
It always seems to me that whatever is good in all religions, pagan as well as that is a little light of God breaking in on a dark world just as in every generation even the purest there have been and still are man-made mistakes and ignorance
But there are certain