

Villefranche

[1926]

? 26

My dear John:

Faisais - nous un pacte.
You say you are hiring editor. Good. I'll leave you in peace - Only you must become my editor - in which case it will be to your interest to see that I earn too much to trouble you with Cuddy or with me.

I tell you that I am making a great deal of reckoning to make a great name
- en dehors du vote - so that explains why you'll never have me beaten.

So there's a way out for you. Let me know if your plan is serious. Otherwise I shall have to take other steps to change a situation which has become impossible. (You might remember that a year ago when I asked for a divorce.

it was you who asked me to think it over.)

I am going back to Paris in ten days.

c/o Lett-Hoyes, 39 Rue Lioncourt - will always find me.

Remember, this is not primarily a war of a woman against a man, but the great war for success -