

Hotel Royal
212. Boulevard Raspail
Paris.

May 1st 1926

My dear John:-

Your letter received today. I am completely in ignorance of your financial status and have no desire to ruin either you or your business. Before I start making a fuss, please let me know by return exactly how far you are willing to go in helping Camilla and myself either in acknowledgement of parental obligations or by the repayment of debts of honour in the event of my taking no steps to make you do so .

Yours

Jany

---