20/5/29.

Dear John:

I have received, through Foster, 2 bills for Camilla: £ 2. odd from the Hynes for school books & tunics, which last Nora Hynes said you had offered to pay for: & £ 5. 5. for her doctor when she was ill. This last seems exorbitant to me. Anyhow, I can do nothing more about it. But it may give you some idea of how the cost of a child runs up beyond her school bills.

Since I came to England I have spent on her £ 27 Nora Hynes.

8. holidays

30. Laurence

20. clothes

£ 85

You £ 25 in France, £ 10 doctor & the cost of her plate - A disproportion exists & I can do nothing more -

If you have not got what you want, walk off it, ask yourself why - You could have had it. I never wanted you to have it. Only nothing but ^{about} fair weavers will ever get it for you -

Yours.
