

14. Rue de Nantessay,

U4^e

mid. 1929

Oy dear John:

You will see from the enclosed that Camilla's school is not so cheap as you said it would be. Also, if she had gone to yours, the 'extras' would have been proportionally higher. It should convince you that I am not saving on her; let alone 'making', as you suggested. I am paying my Aunt £3 for her a week should she stay with her during the holidays. It was agreed some weeks before you suggested that my Aunt ~~was~~^{was} paying me.

Why must you, for a moment, ill temper, lay up discord — to show it rather like a dentist's teeth?

I have had no answer from you about Papa & your last bill — Am I never to have a generous & reasonable letter from you? One would cancel so many others.

Did you ever send me the Malles Mallesianus

Then date. ^{book} The parcel I thought was it at Easter, & didn't open till ^{had time to} see it was something else; & the concierge, a very honest man, swears there was no other. He kept everything else of mine, & it wouldn't interest a Parisian in a loggia?

I'd looked forward to it.

Q.
→