

My dear Douglas:

Enough of that horror.

What did it was, that, a day or so after the Music-Hall evening when you weren't sure, Pat & Duff called, & laughed at the idea. Said you didn't believe it - etc. So, I waited until you could have had an answer from Mrs. Naitland, & when you didn't come, concluded that all was well.

I'm getting on better now, longing to see you - We'll have a great night.

My warmest love to Luke & Evelyn, whom I hope to see if I get south.

Love you -

Jany
