

My dear Douglas.

Forgive me: Nolan's

cheque arrived two days before your second letter. Our priceless carriage had left it at another flat <sup>(where it stayed for a bit)</sup>. I'm just up a crawling to-day - Hope to get down south by the end of this week or the beginning of next. The cold here is terrific. Hope you'll send the 500 to pay a bill will telegraph same, or bring it with me, directly my money comes

Forgive me now.

All love to you.

Darry.
