Douglas dear:

Got home to a cheerful courier!

Got an ultimatum from J. R. highly confused & disguised, which analysed to the fact that he & others will finance Cuddy if they can have her.

And you can only fight cash with cash. Legally I have the last word, but this is putting the screws on - I feel sick & exhausted - somewhat of pneumonia was over me all yesterday.

Have devoted the night & the day to negotiation. Wish we well. It was good with you two yesterday. Will nip up the moment that we means for a party!

Over yours

A. G.
