

Dearest Douglas.

What a party! A fruitful mix here indeed. We were all so happy.
We owe you a bottle of drink, which shall not be forgotten, but we haven't bought it yet because we're starting out in much the same financial condition as you when you left for Quica!

If you feel you could, would you send us an introduction to Norman Douglas? I know it is the sort of thing you are perpetually asked, but we are likely to be in Florence some time. Poste Restante there, till we have a settled address.

All have a good luck - from us both.
I liked Alex of Superbly <sup>when</sup> ~~once~~ he came back here. 'Superb' includes his not taking me either.

What a party! What drink! What company! It will become a classic example.
Christmas near Cannes, I hope -

Ever yours -

Jany
