

My dear Nalis :

Do you think I could come to lunch with you on Monday?
 It is so kind of you to ask me, but please don't talk about 'debts' which don't exist.

If I don't hear from you, I will come about or one o'clock. My time is badly taken up between the dentist, a new book, & rather too many friends, all in trouble.

Love to you & your sister -

Jany Butts.
