My dearest Aunt:

Thank you so very much for the chocolates. They were exactly what was wanted.
 I would have written but I've been out a good deal, & very busy writing. Camilla is adorable.
 She can walk a little, & has just got her crib. It's a beauty - with close polished wooden bars she could not possibly get her head through.
 She also has an eider down with elephants on it, & all sorts of beasts.

She is very well - she has never had any illness yet (I touch wood.)

My knee is rather better, & I dance all I can - & the another play coming out in the States & his here, & possibly a play properly produced in the spring. But the last is uncertain, & I put very little faith in it.

So things are going rather well, & I'm very happy - happier now than I've ever been in my life.

I wish Tony's new job
amusing?

All the best wishes to you - ever yours -
Tony
