

X

Thrusdale - Ida

near Rye.

4. 4. 31.

My dearest Aunt.

It is quite time that Cuddy met Gabriel my husband - We shall be away for most of next week, but on Monday week do you think you could put her in to the express for Ashford - there is no charge - & we will meet her there - I'll nip up & find out what the fare is & send it to you.

The train leaves Bournemouth West - & so, I suppose, Parkstone ~~at~~ a little earlier - at 10.30 on Monday morning, April 13th, & we'll be at Ashford & take her out of it.

I hope the Easter Eggs arrived. We'll keep her anyhow for the inside of the week. See that she brings her thickest shoes - it's a wot, wild part of the country. Mae wants some.

All love, always -

Mary.

